

Teen TRENDS

An educational series examining issues impacting today's youth

Prescription Drug Abuse and Opiate Addiction
by Dr. Charles Reznikoff, addiction medicine specialist

Adolescent Brain Development:
by Dr. Ken Winters,
University of Minnesota

Spotlight On Youth
An intergenerational conversation with local youth: promoting youth voice and mutual understanding

Friday, January 29, 2010
12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Chamber of Commerce
530 Wilson Drive, Faribault MN

Tuesday, March 16, 2010
11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Buckham Memorial Library
11 Division St. E, Faribault MN

Tuesday, May 4, 2010
11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Buckham Memorial Library
11 Division St. E, Faribault MN

This series is designed for ANYONE who cares about teens: parents, teachers, community members, faith leaders, business owners, youth service providers, etc. Join us for LUNCH and discussion around these important topics. Please REGISTER so we can reserve a seat and lunch for you. This is a FREE workshop series.

For more information, contact Becky Ford at 507-838-1788 or bky_ford@msn.com.

Sponsored by the Rice County Chemical Health Coalition, Faribault Drug Free Communities Grant, Northfield Healthy Community Initiative and SAMHSA (grant numbers SP014874-02 & SP12242-08.)

Name _____ Organization _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Special dietary needs or preferences _____

Please mark which sessions you will attend: Prescription Drugs Brain Development Spotlight On Youth

Please send your registration to: Rice County Chemical Health Coalition, c/o Becky Ford
117 11th St. NW, Faribault, MN 55021

Or email your registration information to bky_ford@msn.com